While working at WLIW Channel 21 in their auction department, I initiated an idea for a celebrity auction. The following is my idea for the auction as well a partial list of all the celebrity items I was able to collect by using my own resource books from my home. The full celebrity list is available upon request.

WLIW CELEBRITY AUCTION

Several years ago I attended a fund-raiser for the town of Sayville. The town of Sayville had been vandalized by arson with several different fires within a short period of time. Although the arsonist was caught, the town was left devastated by the fires destruction. A local lawyer, Edward Vaczy, whose son was born and breed in Sayville, contacted his son to help out. His son was Rich Vaczy, producer of The Golden Girls. Rich donated a walk-on part to The Golden Girls to the highest bidder as part of Sayville's Fund-Raising Campaign to restore itself. The walk-on part generated $50,000. Amazing!

This gave me the idea for an all Celebrity Auction for WLIW.

PHASE I

WALK ON PARTS IN TV:

We contact various shows, sitcoms, dramas, soap operas, etc. and get them to donate a small walk-on part on their shows.

WALK ON PARTS IN FILM:

We contact films in current or soon to be productions and get them to donate a walk-on part in a scene of their film.

WALK ON PARTS IN THEATER:

We contact various theater companies and get them to donate a walk-on part in a scene in one of their productions.

CO-HOSTING IN RADIO:

We contact radio stations and have them commit to having a co-host on a weekend day when it wouldn't interrupt regular hosts.

COMMERCIALS ON TV:

We contact advertisers who regularly advertise on TV and get them to donate a walk-on part in one of their commercials.

CELEBRITY DINNER:

We contact celebrities and get them to donate their time to taking a person or groups out to dinner.

PHASE II

We contact celebrities of the various shows and get some of them to help auction-off the walk-on parts.

PHASE III

Working closely with the publicity and marketing department, we contact all talent agencies, professional acting organizations, etc. to get the word out about our Celebrity Auction. This will not be a televised auction but rather a silent one.
